

Butterfield Waltz

© Don Chambers

C (B) (A) (C) G
I like the way you smile, when'ere I take your hand
C F C Dm F G
And move as one across the floor, in rhythm with the band
F G C (B) Am
Then all at once my heart is sailin', what else can I do?
F G C F G
Dancin' tonight, the Butterfield Waltz with you

The Ferry steams across the Bay, in fading summer light
I see you there upon the hill, just up from Hagen Bight
You wave at me amongst the blooms, of lilac, rose and plum
And I just can't wait, for a Butterfield Waltz to come

G C F C
Chorus: Butterfield Waltz, Butterfield Waltz
F G C
Light on your feet, the fiddles ring sweet
Am Dm G C F C
Dancin' with you, to the Butterfield Waltz

My darling how we grow old, the days are fading fast
Who will tend your garden love, when we have danced our last
Others then will play these tunes, but our spirits will take the floor
And I'll dance, if I might, the Butterfield Waltz once more ,,,,chorus

Repeat last 2 lines of chorus

Letters in brackets, e.g., (B), are notes in a bass run